

Privacy Policy for Callendar LLC

Effective Date: 03/25/2025

Introduction

This Privacy Policy describes how Callendar LLC ("we," "us," "our"), operating through Callendar.ai, collects, uses, and protects your information when you use our scheduling service. Callendar.ai is an AI-powered scheduling assistant designed to streamline appointments for small businesses by integrating with Google Calendar.

Information We Collect and How We Use It

When you authorize Callendar.ai to access your Google Calendar via the Google Calendar API, you grant us permission to:

- View existing calendar events to determine availability.
- Create new calendar events based on scheduled appointments.

We use this information solely to provide our scheduling service, specifically to find available time slots and manage appointments efficiently, considering current events and necessary commute time.

Data Storage and Security

Information retrieved via the Google Calendar API, including event details, availability, and scheduling data, is stored securely on Supabase. We adhere to industry-standard security protocols to protect your data against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Limitations on Data Use

We do not use your calendar information for any purpose other than managing appointments and determining availability. We do not sell, share, or otherwise distribute your calendar data to third parties for marketing or advertising purposes.

Your Consent

By using Callendar.ai and authorizing access to your Google Calendar, you consent to this Privacy Policy and our collection and use of your information as described herein.

Changes to this Policy

We may occasionally update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in our practices or applicable regulations. We encourage you to periodically review this Privacy Policy for updates. Continued use of our service after changes indicates your acceptance of the revised policy.
